

California Cancer Registry Approved Network Reporting Facilities

- 1. Ronald Reagan UCLA Medical Center - Effective with Cases Diagnosed 1/1/2012 forward. Designated reporting facility is Ronald Reagan UCLA Medical Center.

The reporting network includes:

- a. Ronald Reagan UCLA Medical Center -
- b. Santa Monica UCLA Medical Center and Orthopaedic Hospital

- 2. Inland Valley Regional Medical Center – Effective 8/1/2012 and forward. Designated reporting facility is Inland Valley Regional Medical Center.

The reporting network includes:

- a. Inland Valley Regional Medical Center
- b. Rancho Springs Medical Center

- 3. Scripps Network – Effective May 1, 2013. First facility to diagnose takes responsibility for reporting the case.

The reporting network includes:

- a. Scripps Green
- b. Scripps La Jolla
- c. Scripps Encinitas
- d. Scripps Mercy

- 4. Hemet Valley Medical Center – Effective August 1, 2013. Designated reporting facility is Hemet Valley Medical Center

The reporting network includes:

- a. Hemet Valley Medical Center
- b. Menifee Valley Medical Center

- 5. Sharp Healthcare – Effective January 1, 2016. First facility to diagnose takes responsibility for reporting the case.

The reporting network includes:

- a. Sharp Memorial Hospital
- b. Sharp Coronado Hospital
- c. Sharp Grossmont
- d. Sharp Chula Vista
- e. Sharp Rees Stealy (Effective 6/1/2020)

California Cancer Registry Approved Network Reporting Facilities

- 6. Kaiser Modesto – Effective for cases diagnosed 1/1/2015 and forward.
Designated reporting facility is Kaiser Modesto
The reporting network includes:

 - a. Kaiser Modesto Hospital
 - b. Kaiser Manteca Hospital
 - c. Kaiser Stockton Medical Offices

- 7. Santa Barbara Cottage Hospital – Effective July 1, 2017. Designated reporting facility is Santa Barbara Cottage Hospital
The reporting network includes:

 - a. Santa Barbara Cottage Hospital
 - b. Goleta Valley Collage Hospital
 - c. Santa Ynez Cottage Hospital

- 8. Providence St. Joseph Health Network Los Angeles– Effective October 1, 2018. First facility to diagnose takes responsibility for reporting the case.

 - a. Providence St. Joseph Medical Center
 - b. Providence Saint John’s Health
 - c. Providence Holy Cross Medical Center
 - d. Providence Tarzana Medical Center
 - e. Pro9vidence Little Company of Mary Torrance
 - f. Providence Little Company of Mary San Pedro

- 9. Scripps Mercy San Diego – Effective March 23, 2020. Designated reporting facility is Scripps Mercy San Diego

 - a. Scripps Mercy San Diego
 - b. Scripps Mercy Chula Vista

- 10. UC San Diego Medical Center – Effective June 1, 2020. Designated reporting facility is UC San Diego Medical Center

 - a. UC San Diego Medical Center
 - b. UC San Diego Cancer Center

California Cancer Registry Approved Network Reporting Facilities

11. California Pacific Medical Center – Effective August 1, 2020. Designated reporting facility is California Pacific Medical Center

- a. California Pacific Medical Center
- b. St. Luke's Hospital